Dear Bob:

Congratulations! And a million thanks for all of your efforts and fantastic results on the website.

You've done an excellent job – I wish I had better access so I could spend more time reviewing. Instead, I'll log on each time I'm on-line.

I've promised Dayna that I'll feed her stories , photos and stuff on a regular basis so the site is current. I know how much work it is to keep it updated, and I do appreciate all that you've done, and have committed to doing!

Not just me. All of us here! At the moment, that's 9 kids, two youth staff, 2 Masaai warriors (our guards), one dog, three pups, two kittens, twenty chickens and 35 chicks. They won't all understand what a website is (in fact, it's hard to explain even to the adults who've never been online) but they all know that I think it's a great thing, and so that's enough for them.

We had a really rough year and a half. Dayna may or may not have mentioned. But things have really turned around this year. All that hard work paying off, I guess. So your contribution to the cause is part of the new beginnings, and really, it's such a lift!

You'll be hearing much more about it.

Bless you, Bob.

For all of us here, thanks.

Lynda
